

ELSE WILL PRINT IT. AND THERE IS A LOT MORE
WHERE THIS CAME FROM.

—O—O—
LET CHILDREN MAKE THEIR CHRISTMAS GIFTS

It is not too soon for the children to begin planning their Christmas gifts.

That is, assuming that you will encourage your children to make their own gifts. There is no one who does not the better appreciate a gift because it is made by one he loves. Even little children can make very pretty and useful gifts for their friends.

The 5-year-olds can make such a calendar as is illustrated. This bears either the photograph of the giver or some pretty picture pasted carefully on an oblong of thin cardboard. In mounting